PANIC AT A FIRE.

An Altar Curtain in a Catholic Church Catches Fire and Causes a Panic Among School Children.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17—A small fire at St. Stanislaus Polish Catholic church this morning caused a panic, and a score of children were badly hurt. Some of them will probably die.

About 8 o'clock this morning the Rev. Father Vincent Barzneski was reading the usual mass for school children, when an altar curtain was set on fire by one of the candles. In less than a minute all the flowers and curtains and everything inflamable was one sea of flames. Nearly 1,500 children, from five to fifteen years of age, were assembled at the church. When they saw the fire they were panic stricken and made for the exits.

All the efforts of the scholars of Notre Dame, who have charge of the children, to check the stampede proved of no avail. The children rushed toward the door and rolled down the stone steps, followed by the crying and screaming women that were also in the church. The children that came first were the ones that were the most injured. They were trampled upon by the children and women following them, who seemed utterly without reason or presence of mind. An alarm of fire was sent in and the noise of the approaching engines, with the ringing of the bells, made the panic still worse. In less than five minutes after the alarm was sent in over 10,000 people had assembled around the church, while the panic was at its height.

A number of children were injured and they were cared for at an adjoining drug store. Six of the children will probably die. The fire was quickly extinguished, only a small damage being done. It will not exceed $100. It seemed as if everybody, within a mile around, was at the fire.

THE COURTS.

Newer Notes From the Centers of Justice--A Light Day.

The case of Elmira Scott vs. the Walls' estate is still up in the circuit court to-day. The suit is brought to collect $6,000 on a note alleged to have been executed by Elmira Walls for the naming of Elmira Scott. Two witnesses testified that they saw the note signed.

The replevin suit of Harrison Talmage vs. Hannah Talmage and the Wabash railway came up before Justice Hays yesterday, and was amicably adjusted, the goods being returned to plaintiff and defendant paying costs.

In the case of Arabelle Coverdale and Perry J. Archer vs. Mary J. and Minnie Meyers a hearing was set for 2 p. m., at which the defendants defaulted and further proceedings were postponed pending a settlement of the note of $60.

Mary T. Hogan filed a suit against a tenant at sufferance and the case was set for hearing at 10 o'clock a. m., on the 21st inst.

James Humes was fined $1 and costs by Justice Hays for assault and battery on George Laible.

FATAL TORNADO

Sweeps Over North Carolina, Causing Death and Destruction.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 17.—A tornado passed through the northern section of Robeson county, eighty-five miles west of here, yesterday afternoon. Great damage was done to property in its path and several persons were killed near Maxton, N. C., and it is feared that there has been a great loss of life and property along the track of the storm. At Hasty several houses were blown down and one person killed and several injured. At Floral College the belfry of the Presbyterian church was blown down, demolishing one house and severely injuring two persons. McKinnon's saw mill was ruined and one of the employes seriously injured.

A SNAKE AT LARGE.

A Rattlesnake Makes the Rest in the Court House.

Henry Fischer, the county surveyor, captured a rattlesnake in the country a week ago and ever since the three foot reptile has been exhibited in a glass case in the surveyor's office.

To-day his snakeship escaped through an opening in the glass slide, which had been carelessly moved out of place, and the poisonous reptile is now concealed somewhere around the third floor of the court house.

It is amusing to notice with what careful tread persons find their way through the building.

ROBBED OF ALL.

A Gray Haired Stranger Sand-Bagged at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—In less than an hour after he arrived in town last night, George H. Bolt, of Watertown, Wis., who is gray haired and feeble, was sandbagged, robbed of $600 in cash, a certificate of deposit for $8,000, and despoiled of his overcoat, hat and satchel. His assailants are unknown.

President Caldwell Dead.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Stephen Caldwell, president of the Fidelity Trust and Safe deposit company and one of the receivers of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, died suddenly at his residence in this city at 2 o'clock this morning.

CHANGE OF FIRM.

Arthur F. Warriner and George W. Stillson Admitted to the Seavey Hardware Business.

Arrangements were completed yesterday by which the wholesale and retail hardware firm of G. W. Seavey, doing business at 19 and 21 West Main street, will be changed to the Seavey Hardware company, on November 1st next, under a co-partnership consisting of G. W. Seavey, Arthur F. Warriner and Geo. W. Stillson. Mr. Warriner has been associated with Mr. Seavey for the past five years, having started in the hardware business in 1880 with Prescott Bros. & Co., and afterwards with McIntosh, Good & Huntington, of Cleveland. Mr. Stillson comes from New York, having been in the employ of Sargent & Co., James Aikman and his successor, the Central Stamping company, being with the last firm for the past eighteen years, five years of which has been in the capacity of traveling salesman. All these gentlemen are young, energetic, active and thoroughly competent business men and we bespeak for the new firm a bright future.

BERLIN EXCITED

Over a Horrible Tragedy Discovered by the Police.

BERLIN, Oct. 17.—The city is excited over a horrible tragedy just discovered by the police. A builder named Schaafe, residing in Reinickendorf, a suburb of Berlin, horribly mutilated and killed his wife and three of his children with a hatchet, and terribly injured two others of his five children, who may yet die. Schaafe was a builder who grew wealthy during the recent boom of Berlin real estate.

He got into financial difficulty, losing nearly all of his fortune and was hard pressed by creditors. Fearing proceedings in bankruptcy he become nearly insane with brooding over his troubles and of late had shown signs of being out of his mind. In this condition he suddenly attacked his wife and children, early this morning, horrible hacking them with a hatchet, their cries for help being unheard by the neighbors. Schaafe has disappeared and search is being made for him.

SHOT BY AN ASSASSIN.

The Town Marshal at Falmouth, Ky., Killed.

FALMOUTH, Ky., Oct 17.—S. E. R. Vogelsang, town marshal of Falmouth, was shot and killed last night. The murder was brutal and cowardly. Vogelsang was just entering the gate of his home when an unknown assassin fired. The marshal fell dead, with a double load of buck shot in his breast and face. Several persons heard the shot and rushed into the house. The dead man was one of the sergeant-at-arms of the congressional convention now in session here. Oscar Downard, a livery stable keeper is know to have had a grudge against him, and is suspected of the murder.

CABINET MEETING.

The Body Discusses the Gen. Barrundias' Killing.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—An important session of cabinet officers was held to-day from noon until 2 p. m. It is understood that Central American affairs were discussed at considerable length, the whole matter of General Barrudias' killing and Minister Mizner's connection with the affair being gone over in detail. Members of the cabinet are reticent as to the result of the conference.

The president has appointed the following postmasters: Ermina L. R. Evans at Ashburnham, Mass.; G. H. Spalding, Stratford, Conn.; S. H. Polly, at Osawatomie, Kan.

Julia Marlowe.

It is not often that an attraction the equal of Julia Marlowe can be persuaded to leave the larger cities and Fort Wayne is fortunate in securing her appearance here to-night at the Temple. It was in Fort Wayne where Miss Marlowe met one of her earliest and most appreciative audiences. The encouragement given her by the critical audience here has left a warm place in the young woman's heart, and she entertains the most pleasant recollections of her former visit. She has often said that one of the first pronounced triumphs she gained was in this city and she feels that she owes the people here a lasting debt of gratitude for the warmth of its welcome when she was less famous than she is to-day. Miss Marlowe will be able to see the pleasant recollections entertained of her by the welcome manifested at her return again to-night. There is no actress of the present day who will be more gladly received by the people of Fort Wayne than the modest and winning Julia Marlowe, "the child of genius," the pride of every American heart.

SHOT HIS WIFE'S SEDUCER.

And Then, in a Duel, Sent Four Bullets Into the Body of the Dead Man's Brother.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct 17.—John Dixon, a prosperous farmer of Alleghaney county, discovered that an intimate relation was existing between his wife and Marshall Halsey. Wednesday he found the pair in a compromising position and promptly shot and killed Halsey. He threatened to kill his wife, but her piteous pleadings caused him to desist. He told her, however, that he wished never to see her again. News of the tragedy soon spread, but everybody justified Dixon and swore that they would pull down the jail and free him if he should be arrested.

Late in the evening Charles Halsey, a brother of the dead man, hunted Dixon down, and pulling a revolver, tried to shoot him. He was prevented by several persons, who said if he wanted to fight he would have to fight fair and give Dixon a chance. This he agreed to, and the two men were soon facing each other. The word was given and both began to fire. Halsey was shot four times and fell dead, but Dixon was not hit. Dixon has not yet been arrested, and the people of the county say no sheriff can take him. Heretofore he has been a peaceful man and well known throughout the country.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Ed. S. Phelps Falls Dead From Heart Failure--John Hatch Succumbs.

Yesterday, at Chicago, Edward B. Phelps, of this city, died suddenly from heart failure. He had been unwell of late, but nothing serious was apprehended. The deceased was thirty-six years old, and a brother of Charles, who resides on Erie street in this city, and also of the late Delbert Phelps, who was employed at the White wheel works. The remains will be brought here to-morrow evening and conveyed to Schone & Wellman's undertaking rooms. The funeral will occur Sunday at 2 p. m. from the Christian church.

John Hatch, a carpenter residing on Walnut street, died last evening, in great agony. Mr. Hatch, while in the employ of Contractor Levi Griffith, a few days ago, fell from a scaffold onto a sharp stick, which penetrated his abdomen. A difficult surgical operation was performed, but it failed to save his life. A wife of ten months survives him. Mr. Hatch's father is a well-known farmer of Pleasant township. The funeral will take place Sunday, at 1 p. m., from the house, and at 1:30 from the Wayne street M. E. church, Rev. Eldridge officiating.

The funeral of Paul, the sixteen-year-old son of Frank Sallier, of 30 Hough street, took place this morning, at 10 o'clock, from the Cathedral.

Henry, the four-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kleinsorg, corner of Barthold and High streets, died last night.

JAY GOULD HURT.

While on the Street He is Run Down by a Wagon.

The sensational report was correct at noon to-day that Jay Gould was run down by a wagon and killed. Investigation proved that Jay had indeed met with a sad accident, but prompt medical attendance may save his life. It seems that he had so far departed from his aristocratic station as to mingle with his common brethern in the street where he was overtaken as above stated. For the benefit of those who do not know him we will state that Jay is O. D. Perry's blooded poodle, whose geneology dates from away back. The precious sufferer is tenderly cared for and by careful nursing it may survive and deprive the newspapers of a big item.

SAFE ROBBERS

Surprised at Their Work, a Battle Ensues and Three Men Killed.

LIMA, Ohio, Oct. 17.—About 3 o'clock this morning a gang of robbers were detected at work on a safe at Ohio City, about twenty-five miles west of here, on the Chicago and Erie road. The alarm was given and the citizens turned out to capture them. The robbers opened fire on the posse and a battle ensued, during which three men were killed and others wounded. The robbers, it is reported, made their escape, leaving one of their number dead. Great excitement prevails.

Maxwell Hanged.

MORRIS, Ill., Oct. 17.—James Maxwell, alias Murray, was hanged at three minutes before 10 o'clock this morning for the murder of Charles Decker. His neck was broken by the fall and death was instantaneous.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Currier, of 315 East Wayne street, a son.

JOY AND SORROW.

Mingled in Rabbi Schoenfarber's Wedding Day, at Warsaw--Other Marriages.

The marriage of Rev. Tobias Schoenfarber, formerly of this city, but now of Baltimore, Md., to Miss Carrie Phillipson, of Warsaw, at the latter place, Wednesday evening, was a most elaborate affair. The Warsaw Daily Times gives over two columns to a description of the affair and speaks of it as "the most gorgeously and elaborately dressed assemblage that ever gathered in Warsaw to witness a similar event." The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Phillipson and was performed by Rabbi A. Guttmacher, of this city, assisted by Rabbi Rosenau, of Omaha. Immediately after the ceremony the guests repaired to the opera house, where, in the large hall a banquet followed. The presents were many and handsome. Guests were present from many cities, those from Fort Wayne being: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rothschild, the Misses Belle Lovi, Clara Rubin, Minnie Rosenthal, Carrie Dessauer, Eva Lauferty and Messrs. Louis Hirsch, Ben Lehman, Prof Joost and Rabbi Guttmacher. The wedding had already been once postponed, in consequence of sickness, and when Mr. Schoenfarber, the groom, left Cleveland his father was lying at the point of death, and soon after his arrival at Warsaw, Mr. Phillipson received a dispatch announcing his death. Under advisement it was thought best not to inform Mr. S. of the sad news until after the ceremony, and this course was pursued. At 8 o'clock in the morning they left for Cleveland, Ohio, where the sume afternoon they attended the funeral services of Rev. Schoenfarber's father, and thus was there joy and sorrow on their wedding day.

LA VANWAY-DIDIER.

At the Episcopal residence, on Clinton street, last night, occurred the marriage of Miss Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Didier, to Sherman La Vanway, of the United States express company. Rev. Father Byrne, of the Cathedral clergy, performed the ceremony. A reception was held from 6 to 12 at 56 East Columbia street, at which place the young couple will make their home, after enjoying a wedding trip in the west. They will return about November 1.

GRANNEMANN-KAAG.

Last evening, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret Kaag, 283 West Jefferson street, occurred the marriage of her daughter, Miss Pauline, to Henry C. Grannemann. Rev. C. Gross, pastor of Emanuel's Lutheran church, performed the ceremony, after which took place an elegant reception. The groom is connected with the drug store of C. B. Woodworth & Co., and is quite popular. His bride is an accomplished young lady and will be recalled as a former cashier in the store of Kaag Bros., of which firm her late father was a partner. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Grannemann will go to house keeping at once at 230 West DeWald street.

TEAGARDEN-EVERSON.

A very delightful wedding took place last evening, at 8 o'clock, at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McClure, 59 Butler street. The bridal party were Thomas D. Teagarden and Ella O. Everson, sister of Mrs. McClure. Mr. Teagarden is a fireman on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad, and has been a respected citizens of this city for some time. Miss Everson has been living in Andrews a number of years and is held in high esteem by those who know her. They are nicely situated in a cosy home at 101 Williams street, where they will be pleased to greet their friends any time. Rev. Stephen A. Northrop performed the ceremony in the presence of special friends and relatives.

SEVERE CONCUSSION.

Mrs. Mary Mangel Accidentally Knocked Down and Injured.

Mrs. Mary Mangel, a widow living at 63 Maumee road, was knocked down by a couple of young men who accidentally ran against her, last evening, and she suffered a severe concussion of the brain, which makes her case very serious if not critical.

The accident happened in front of the First Presbyterian church about 7 o'clock, as Mrs. Mangel was returning from a day's work done in a private family. She was assisted home by the young men, whose names have not been learned.

UNDOUBTED LEPROSY.

A Genuine Case Discovered in the Washington Penitentiary.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 17.—A case of undoubted leprosy has been discovered in the penitentiary here. The leper is Thomas Burke, who was sent up from Port Townsend in July for assault with intent to murder. Scales have begun to form on his body. Burke was in the Hawaiian Islands until last June when he came to Port Townsend.

Frank Caswell, traveling salesman for DeWald & Co., arrived from Denver, Col., to-day.

One hundred and thirty shoe dealers met in convention in New York city last Thursday, and on account of the McKinley bill, decided to increase the price of boots and shoes 25 to 50 per cent.

P. A. Randall will open up a free 'bus and baggage line to run from his hotel to the depots. He will have several vehicles. It is quite a feature, and will probably add to the business of that hostelry.

George Shuman left for Chicago today, where he will probably accept a position in an architect's office. He is a draughtsman of fine ability. His brother Gilbert will probably enter an office there also.

Drs. Boswell was called to 52 Charles street late yesterday evening to attend Joseph Vachon, who, in jumping from a train on the Wabash railroad, near Hanna street crossing, sustained a fracture of his left leg, midway from knee to ankle.

Edward Gebhard, of Councilman Frank De Lagrange's grocery store, on Hanna street, has organized quite a popular string band, and is entertaining several engagements. He can already play that difficult piece, "Annie Rooney," to perfection.

The election booths, manufactured by Folckemer & Son, Lafayette, arrived over the Wabash to-day. There are eighty of them, requiring two cars for their shipment. Mr. Folckemer was in the city to-day, and stated that the railroad company demand a special rate of two-thirds more for the shipment of booths.

John H. Spencer, of South Waveland, caused the body of his father, buried at that place, to be disinterred for removal to another cemetery. Upon looking into the coffin, one arm was found lying across the face, and there were other indications that his father had returned to consciousness after his burial, and finally had smothered to death.

Adam Holmes, a one legged peddler of pencils and lamp wicks, is in jail. Adam was induced to sell his stock yesterday for a $8 bill, and not seeming to realize that this great commonwealth of ours does not produce bills of that denomination, he was hilarious over his bargain. He was precipitated into the depths of gloom when he was informed that the bill was only the creation of a shrewd advertiser. Adam then began to drink, so hard in fact that he landed in the police station.

Last night James Meehan, a well known crippled wood sawyer, was severely injured at the corner of Francis and Washington streets, by stepping off a steep declivity of nearly two feet, which was left by the contractors after paving Washington street at that point. He sat down afterwards on the steps of Krull's millinery store, and fainted from the severe pain. Here he was found by some parties and conveyed to his home, and it will be several weeks before he will be able to work again.

Grand Chief Templar, H. B. White, of Ohio, delighted his hearers last night at Mr. Driver's church. He is as earnest as Moody and as humorous as Gough. His stereoptican views were the finest that have ever been exhibited in Fort Wayne. No one can ever forget the Cruikshank series. The Rock of Ages series, by unanimous request, will be repeated to-night. Religious without sectarianism, patriotic without being partisan, wise without pedantry and witty without vulgarity or bombast, he is most potent for good. Hear him to-night. There is no admission charged.

SAW THROUGH THE ROOF!

In This Way Seven Prisoners Escape from Jail at Athens, O.--Two Return Voluntarily.

ATHENS, O., Oct. 17.—A wholesale jail delivery occurred here last night. Seven prisoners escaped by sawing their way through the roof of the county jail. The remarkable part of the whole matter is that Charles Taylor, awaiting trial for the murder of his wife, came back this morning and gave himself up. Eli Foster, awaiting trial for the murder of Dan Bottlmont, went home and visited his parents through the night and came back this morning, and knocked for admittance to the county stronghold. The sheriff, with his posse, are scouring the country for the five who are out.

The services in the supreme court room, conducted by Rev. Rush R. Shippin, assisted by Dr. Bartlett, of Washington, were very impressive. The family of the late associate justice and almost all of the justices of the supreme court accompanied the remains to Keokuk, Iowa, where the interment occurs.

Big Day for Quails.

Yesterday being the first day of the season that lovers of quail shooting were permitted to hunt, a number of our city sportsmen were out enjoying themselves—in fact, the woods were full of them. They report that the woods are full of birds, and they returned home last night loaded down with game. Their success is due from the fact that they bought their guns and ammunition of Max G. Lade, the Sportsmen's Emporium. Mr. Lade's stock is one of the largest in the city and lovers of hunting will have no trouble to find what they want.

DAVID A. WELLS, the pioneer revenue reformer, has been nominated for congress in the third Connecticut district. He has pledged himself to stand on the democratic national platforms of 1884 and 1888.

DR. MARY WALKER has been nominated for congress by an independent convention at Weedsport, N. Y. Mary would "cut quite a figure" on the floors of congress if she should happen to be elected, wouldn't she?

TO-DAY Mr. N. R. Leonard, editor and proprietor of the Gazette, begins his fourth year's connection with that paper. THE SENTINEL extends to Brother Leonard, Rip Van Winkle's wish: "May you live long and prosper."

FORT WAYNE is to have a weather bureau of its own, the council having voted the required sum, $25, for the purchase of flags, etc. We are glad of it. We always believed we ought to be allowed to regulate our own weather, for then we can order it to suit the occasion. Now if the weather clerk will keep his hands off and allow our weather bureau to run the business, the days will run along smoothly and everybody will be happy. We think every city ought to have its own weather clerk.

ANY law which says a girl can't chew gum if she wants to is tyranny. Let the fair creatures chew all the gum they wish to. It only costs a cent a stick, and it would be cruel to deprive them of the pleasure for the sake of saving such a small expense as that. Let them chew gum, chew it at home, chew it on the street, chew it at school, chew it at church, chew it at the theater, chew it in society, chew it everywhere. It's a great accomplishment, and the girl that can chew gum the fastest and the most and the sweetest ought to be given a medal.

STRANGE coincidences are happening in life every day and one of them is the frequency with which the News and SENTINEL, both evening papers, have the same headlines to local articles. It has happened several times of late, and it happened again yesterday, when the city editors of both papers selected as the head for an article of court news "What's in a Name." Our city editor assures us that it is the result of no preconcerted arrangement between himself and Mr. Dougall, city editor of the News, and we can only explain it by thinking that there must be something true in the old saying: "Great minds often run in the same channel."

THIRTY-NINE states will hold elections two weeks from next Tuesday, when 323 congressmen will be elected. As there are almost always at least two candidates seeking the honor of representing their district in the legislative halls of the nation, there will be 323 disappointed men when the result of the battle of the ballots is made known. There are ten thousand other candidates running for the various county and state offices which will be voted for at that time, and more than every other one of these will be defeated. What joy and what sorrow the night of November 4 will bring!

Merit wins, as the marvelous success of Hood's Sarsaparilla shows. It possesses true medicinal merit. Sold by all druggists.

AUTUMNAL ADVICE.

Keep your feet warm and dry.

Wear waterproof boots in preference to arctics or rubbers.

Keep your eye on your umbrella, you will need it yourself.

Stop a cough or cold at once. Pneumonia and consumption may be started by either.

If you wear rubbers take them off whenever you have the chance, even if only for a few minutes.

If you feel a cough or cold coming on take a drink of pure whisky at once. It will keep the blood in circulation and is the best preventive against the disease of the season.

Remember that only pure whisky should be taken. Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky has the strongest recommendations from the leading scientists and medical men in the country, and is the only standard medicinal whisky known. Insist on having it.

THE DRINK QUESTION

...ever coming to the front. What beverage shall we drink to quench thirst? The most popular non-intoxicant is Cocoa, which is rapidly supplanting tea and coffee as a national beverage. There are many excellent Cocoas, but in advance of all other preparations stands VAN HOUTEN'S, the original, which is universally declared to be perfectly pure, free from fat, easily digested, delicious to the taste, nutritious, and a stimulant without any depressing after effects.

VAN HOUTEN'S COCOA was introduced into the household of the late Emperor of German upon high recommendation. The senior physician of the London Court Hospital has used this brand of Cocoa for many years. It is strongly recommended to students and all whose duties involve much wear and tear, whether mental or physical. For these reasons it has earned the highest encomiums of the leading analysts of the day.

What shall we drink to raise the spirits hight
VAN HOUTEN'S COCOA, is the universal cry!
The purest and most delicious;
The best and most nutritious.

☞ It only needs a single trial to convince anyone of the superiority of VAN HOUTEN'S COCOA. Please insist upon your grocer or storekeeper ordering it for you, and take no substitute. It is put up in one quarter, one half and one pound cans. If not obtainable, enclose 25 cents in stamps or postal note to either VAN HOUTEN & ZOON, 106 Reade Street, New York, or 45 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, and a can will be sent by mail. MEN OF THE THROTTLE.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers in Twenty-Seventh International Convention.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 17.—Every one of the 452 divisions of the Brotherhood of Locomotive engineers is represented at the twenty-seventh annual international convention now in session in the old City hall, this city.

Addresses were made yesterday by Master of Ceremonies H. K. Adams, Mayor Gurley, of Pittsburg, Chauncey M. Depew, Lieutenant Governor Davis, Grand Chief Arthur and others. Mr. Depew received a genuine ovation. Chief Arthur was also enthusiastically received by the audience. He prefaced his seventh annual report by stating the objects and intents of the convention. The speaker then recounted the many dangers encountered by the engineers and of the fascination about the work to be found in few other occupations. The insurance feature was dwelt upon at length.

Chief Arthur and First Grand Engineer Ingraham were interviewed, but neither was willing to venture an opinion as to what understanding the convention would come to on the question of affiliation with the Federated Order of Railway Employes. Mr. Arthur said from what he had observed the sentiment was about evenly divided. "I have not had sufficient time to glean the opinions of delegates and cannot, therefore, give you an idea as to how the matter will be disposed of."

When asked how he regarded the proposition to affiliate with the Knights of Labor Mr. Arthur would not commit himself. The general sentiment of the delegates is decidedly against it. John A. Hill, editor of the Locomotive Engineer, thought that when it came to a vote the delegates would decide against it. Another prominent member of the order expressed the same views, and the belief is that the Brotherhood will continue independent of all other labor organizations.

The convention will remain in session until all important business is cleared up. This may require a session every day for two or three weeks.

THE LOCAL BUDGET.

The Wabash blacksmith shop is now operating ten hours per day.

Several new machines will be placed in the Pittsburg car shop and planing mill.

James Elliott, has accepted a position in the moulding department of the Bass works.

Chas. Franz and Carl Lichtener, have accepted positions at the electric light works.

Engine No. 28, of the Grand Rapids road, is in the Pittsburg round house for repairs.

Clerk C. W. Turner, of the Pittsburg lumber yard office, is cultivating a moustache.

The employes of the Pittsburg railroad and shops, received their monthly salary to-day.

A. T. West, of the Pittsburg telegraph offices, has resumed his duties, after an illness.

The citizens of Marion, Ind., are offering strong inducements to the Pennsylvania company to remove their shops from Logansport to Marion. They have agreed to bear the expense of moving the machinery, give the company thirty-two acres of ground, free water and free natural gas and a cash bonus of $100,000. The citizens of Logansport are said to be somewhat disturbed over the matter.

Martin Beamer, of the American wheel works, is inventing a patent tire roller, to be used in his department.

Jacob Stine, of the tire department of the American wheel works, is visiting his uncle at Huntington, for a few days.

John F. Huber has resigned his position at the American wheel works to accept one with the city fire department.

Tom Henderson, of the Wabash freight house, drew a handsome gold watch at Voirol's drawing the other evening.

Joseph Truscher and Wm. Mills, of the American wheel works, left this morning for Decatur, Ind., on a hunting expedition.

Fred Lagerman, of the Pittsburg boiler shop, and James Hanley, of the store room, will leave to-night for a trip to Chicago.

Engine No. 41, of the Grand Rapids road, that runs on the Richmond accommodation, is in the shops at Grand Rapids for repairs.

Engine No. 18 of the Cincinnati, Jackson and Mackinaw railroad, has been received in the Wabash shops, in this city for general repairs.

Engineer Isaac Clem, of the Grand Rapids road, and family, of East Butler street, left yesterday for Dixon, O., to visit relatives for a few days.

H. Zollinger, of the Pittsburg car shop, has returned to duty after an absence to be joined in the bonds of wedlock and enjoy a wedding tour. He is now at home at pleasant quarters on Force street.

Joseph Shelly and Herman Durnell, the popular engineers on the Fort Wayne road, were out quail hunting yesterday. They came home without any birds and the nimrods are emphatic in their assertion that the game knew enough to go in out of the rain.

William Arehart, of the Bass moulding rooms, is off duty to nurse an injured foot, which was badly burned while at work last evening. He was pouring off some molten iron in the moulds when the ladel accidentally caught on a rail and upset the contents, splashing it over and inside his shoe. It is a very painful injury and will cause him to be off duty for several days.

Trouble seems to be brewing for General Manager Saul, of the Evansville and Terre Haute road, in new quarters. The train men, the shop men, the section men and the telegraph operators have all struck and secured better wages. Now the clerks have organized and demand an increase in pay, and have appointed a committee to meet General Manager Saul on the 25th of this month to adjust their wages.

Dick Wells, of the blacksmith department of the American wheel works, is the oldest employ of the company. It will be twenty-four years this month since he started to work there. He has worked in the room where the blacksmith shop is at the present time for nearly twenty years. He has grown old in the position, having been quite a young man when he was first employed, and now his locks are streaked with silver threads. On January 1st, 1889, he was presented, as a new Year's gift, with one of the old-fashioned clocks of the Seth Thomas make. He took it to the works, made a case to keep it from the dust and there it has remained ever since. It has always kept the very best of time. Dick thinks it is among the oldest clocks in the city.

J. Worman, engineer on the Pittsburg road, is sick.

A. J. Hickman, a machinist in the Pittsburg round house, is off duty.

A. Miller, of the Pittsburg road, is detained from duty on account of sickness.

Engines No. 5 and No. 339, of the Pittsburg road, are in the shop for repairs.

F. Archer, fireman on the Pittsburg road, has reported for duty after a two weeks' vacation.

H. A. Durnell, engineer on the Pittsburg road, is off duty on account of the sickness of his wife.

H. P. Snyder, fireman on the Grand Rapids road, has reported for duty after a few days' vacation.

Thomas Potter, a bridge carpenter along the Pittsburg road, is slowly recovering from a badly sprained back.

Master Mechanic Thomas Butler, of the Pittsburg shops, at Crestline, O., who was in the city yesterday, returned home last evening on passenger train No. 8.

The beautiful bass voice of L. E. Rohling, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, will be heard often hereafter, in the vicinity of John street, these long winter evenings, in the old and well-known ballad, "Rock Me to Sleep, Papa; Rock Me to Sleep." A daughter has arrived at his home to make the parents happy.

Andy Ryan, Neil Myers and Frank Girard, with Martin Crawford as foreman, have the contract for cleaning the windows of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop after working time. The change in the appearance of the windows is not greatly altered. The foreman of the gang says it was done after dark and they couldn't see.
